Background of the Gospel

Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again, our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience.

The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.

Dear Jesus, we turn to You in the time of illness. O dearest Comforter alleviate our worry with your gentle love. We place our sick under Your care and humbly ask that You restore Your servants to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge whatsoever you do, you do for the love of us.

Dear Parishioners of Transfiguration of Jesus and Santa Clara Mission,

Thank you for the privilege and honor of serving as your pastor. I am deeply grateful for the welcome you gave me, for your friendship, your support, and for allowing me to walk with you in moments of joy, celebration, sorrow, and loss.

Thank you for working together with me as we sought to grow in faith and build our parish. Your love for God and dedication to the Church have been a constant source of inspiration.

As I prepare to begin a new assignment, I carry each of you in my heart and prayers. If at any time I have failed you, disappointed you, or fallen short of your expectations, I sincerely ask for your forgiveness.

May God continue to bless Transfiguration of Jesus and Santa Clara abundantly.

With gratitude and prayers,
FR
